The International Bach Festival Schaffhausen is one of Switzerland's leading classical festivals. From May 20 – 24 2020 the next Bach Festival will revolve around the motto «Uplifting Bach».

The International Bach Festival belongs to Schaffhausen nearly as inseparably as the worldfamous Rhine Falls. Founded in 1946, the Schaffhausen Bach Festival connects music lovers from all around Europe with unforgettable concerts around the magnificent landscape of the High Rhine. Every festival programme follows a specific motto and features unique concerts specially devised for the festival, thus enabling manifold connections to other composers, eras and musical styles. With world premieres, commissions and innovative crossover projects the Bach Festival continuously sets new standards. The next Bach Festival under the motto «Uplifting Bach» offers a rich and diverse programme with famous artists and guarantees unforgettable moments in and around Schaffhausen.
